SLUMP IN WHEAT IS BUSINESS IS WEAK FEATURE OF MARKET

Causes Depression; Rallies Are Without Force.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2 .- Absence of export demand here and at northwestern grain centers caused a slump in wheat prices on the local exchange today, the final quotations showing net losses of ic to 1@1ic. Corn and oats also closed weak, but provisions were firm.

Oats were firm the greater part of the day, but eased off late in the session owing to the weakness of wheat and corn, and closed a shade to $\frac{1}{2}$ below the previous close. The strength of cash oats, which were up to to $\frac{1}{2}$e, was one of the chief bullish influences.

Provisions held firm all day, despite the weakness manifested in the grain market, and closed at net gains of $2\frac{1}{2}$e to $10$e. A feature of the trading was the buying of October pork by local packers.

er, and no features were presented in the way of price changes. In accordance with what the dealers had promised the previous day, wild ducks were fairly plentiful, but the demand was very slight. The dealers offered the canvas-back duck for 50 to 75 cents per pair, while the Mallards were not obtainable for less than $1 a pair. Wild ducks, say the dealers, are not coming in nearly so plentiful this year as they have in the past, but still they anticipate no difficulty in supplying the demand. Fish is now coming in freely, but aside from oysters, no other variety of winter fish has yet made an appearance. Oysters are now plentiful, and dealers are asking 40 and 50 cents a can for them.

Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Cooler weather is the mainspring of the moderate improvement in retail and jobing trade reported at most cities this week. Additionally, help for the futures have been numerous fairs and feetivals which have enlarged distribution locally at many points. While there are reports of holding crops, notably at the South, where prices are much lower than a year ago, the crop movement is liberal as a whole. Reports from industries are ratheresters and the sepite grain of 22c as the ckers.

Receipts and Expenditures.

WASHINGTON Oct. 2.—The monthly comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures shows that for the month of September, 1908, there was an excess expenditure over receipts of $4,452,971, as against a deficit for August of $3,309,128. The receipts of $4,532,971, as against a deficit for August of $3,909,128. The receipts of September, however, were over $3,000,000 in excess of those of August, and the expenditures $3,700,000 in excess of those of August.

The customs receipts were $24,946,836, which is an increase during the last thirty days of over $2,000,000, and only $658,000 less than for September, 1907, internal revenue receipts increased from $19,806,200 in August, to $20,153,148 in September. Miscellaneous receipts also show a material gain. The total receipts for September, $48,320,114, were only about $3,118,000 less than for the month of September, 1907, which was before the financial depression set in. The total expenditures for the month were $27,040,085, and the increases are principally shown in the war, navy, and pension accounts. and the increases are principally shown in the war, navy, and pension accounts. There was over $1.000,000 decrease in the civil and miscellaneous accounts as compared with the corresponding month in 1907, and a $2.500,000 decrease in the public works account.

ON PRODUCE MARKET Riches Without Health is Half Poverty

And the man who loses sight of this fact is "penny wise and pound foolish." A clear head and quick intellect is behind every success in life, whether it consists of surveying and digging a ditch or footing a column of figures, but you cannot have these requirements without health.

The Man Who Neglects

his health and has symptoms patched up until he finds it convenient to obtain a cure is of the class of men who patches his wagon with old wire to save a small blacksmith bill, or the fellow who spends twenty minutes every day for a year taking down and laying up a fence because it would require an hour's time and a dollar's worth of timber to make a convenient gate. Our price for a cure of any ailment in our line is cheap, but not too cheap. When you buy meat too cheap, you smell what you have saved when it is cooking.

We quote below a few of our prices—but our charges in all cases are very moderate, and no honest man is too poor to take advantage of our services and BE CURED.
